STEPS Services

The Short Term Emergency Pet Support service offers:

-  Short term emergency pet care for domestic animals only
-  Primary services include:
 - Pet feeding
 - Pet walking (short term)
-  STEPS is a not for profit community service, auspice of BMOW

PLEASE NOTE:

Pet owners must undergo an initial assessment; provide alternative contact details and enter into a service agreement before a pet may be accepted into care by STEPS volunteers.

Service delivery is subject to:

- * Meeting specific criteria
- * Entering into a service agreement
- * Living in the Bathurst City Precinct

To be eligible for STEPS, pet owners must be identified as part of the Home & Community Care (HACC) target group

TARGET GROUP INCLUDES:

Persons living in the community who, in the absence of basic maintenance & support services provided or to be provided within scope of the program, are at risk of premature or inappropriate long term residential care, including:

1. Older and frail persons with moderate, severe or profound disabilities.
2. Younger persons with moderate or profound disabilities.
3. The unpaid carers of those persons.
